

BRYAN BERNARDO

650-290-1672 | linkedin.com/in/bryan-bernardo135 | github.com/Beeeeeryan

ABOUT

Methodical and detailed-oriented computer science student with a solid foundation of front-end development. Intermediate exposure with core languages such as Java/C++ with diverse familiarity of back-end and technical languages such as MIPS/HTML/MySQL. Design driven in algorithmic analysis and design/data structures.

WORK EXPERIENCE

SALES ASSOCIATE

San Francisco State E-Follet Bookstore

June 2022- September 2024

- Delivered efficient customer support among students and faculty with textbook inquiries among peak academic periods.
- Troubleshoot and serviced different technological issues and demos throughout the store

TECHNOLOGY SPECIALIST

Target

June 2017 - December 2020

- Created daily work-load efficiently stocking and promoting the latest technology devices
- Effectively troubleshoot multiple basic technological issues and offered guidance and recommendations

PROJECTS

Bank Simulator | Personal Project

- Dynamically programmed features that saved virtual data using OOP with C++
- Colloborated with a team of 3 towards designing user-sensitive functions(e.g retrieving personal info)

Video Game Data Analytics | Personal Project

- Using Jupyter Notebook, created a clean data set from Kaggle that represents video game sales from 1980s to 2017 using data visualization

E-Commerce Website Application| Academic Team Project

- Utilizing HTML/CSS frameworked, designed and coded a generic E-Commerce Website
- Implemented secure password security using hashing algorithms(e.g bcrypt)
- Integrated back-end features such as data management using Node.js/MySQL

EDUCATION

San Francisco State University

2022 - Present

B.A. in Computer Science

SKILLS

- Highly Proficient in Java and C++
- Solid Understanding of Python/MIPS/ARM
- Front-end proficient in HTML/CSS
- Customer-focused communication
- Efficient workload management